

Taste of the sea

MEMBERS of the Fishing For Everyone Ladies Fishing Club had a reel-y good time during a sea fishing trip off the North East coast.

The ladies, 11 in total, boarded The Warlord fishing boat out of Amble and fished for mackerel and cod. Due to popular demand the club has a further two sea fishing trips booked with another one to be confirmed.

For more information, visit the club's official website at Carmelle and Jenny, members of the Fishing For Everyone Ladies Fishing Club head out sea fishing off the North East coast.

www.blog.fishingforeveryone.com

ANGLING

Amble Sea Angling Club ONLY six members fished Sunday's competition at Warkworth beach with everyone catching undersize fish.

Only two fish were weighed in: T Cook, one flounder, 8.25oz; R Gray one flounder, 6.75oz.

Next competition is on Monday, August 16, fishing from 6pm to 9pm on the River Aln.

There is a meeting on Thursday, August 5, at Radcliffe Club, Amble, starting at 7.30pm, new members welcome.